

Overstone Combined School British Values - Mutual Respect

What is Mutual Respect? Mutual respect is understanding that we don't all share the same beliefs and values. It includes respecting the values, ideas and beliefs of others whilst not imposing our own on others. People may not agree on everything but they are able to work things out.		Key Vocabulary	Definition
Teaching this British Value should: -encourage respect for other people -encourage respect for other people, paying particular regard to the protected characteristics set out in the Equality Act 2010.		mutual	A feeling or action shared in common by two or more people respect	Regard for the feelings, wishes and rights of others values	Principles or standards of behaviour
		imposing	Forcing decisions or ideas on others
How we uphold the British value of Mutual Respect: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Implementing our school values which have clear and agreed statements, as well as ensuring that the children know their rights and respect the rights of others. • Through the PSHE and RE curriculums pupils are encouraged to discuss and respect differences between people. • Respect for each other is modelled by all staff towards the pupils and each other. • Respect covers self-respect, respect for family, friends, and other groups; the school, the locality, the environment, and possessions • Children's behaviours around the school demonstrate their understanding of respect • Different types of family structure are discussed in PSHE. • Pupils carry out 'peer assessment' in lesson, particularly English and Maths lessons in a respectful manner. • We have a yearly remembrance assembly and the school is represented at the village service. • Overstone is the lead school affiliated to Wing Airfield. 		Resources to look at with your children Mutual respect https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/articles/zp8yhcv https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/cfe2-p-214-respect-powerpoint
